

Proceeding of the Colo City Council Meeting
April 18, 2018

The Colo City Council met in a special session on Monday, April 18, 2018 at City Hall. Mayor John Wilson called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m. The roll was called showing all members present and absent as follows: Present: Otto, Handsaker, Stoeffler, and Spalding. Absent: Geisinger.

Council member Spalding moved to approve the construction of the Colo sign on the school's property. Council member Otto seconded the motion and it passed all ayes. Nays: None.

The council discussed the future sump pump ordinance. Information will be going out to the public in the City newsletter.

Discussions on the intake by the Dog House was discussed. Clerk Kohlwes is gathering more information on the issue.

The council discussed the Wilson Auction building. All agreed the city would tear the building down. The council brainstormed ideas for the property. More information is being gathered.

Council member Spalding moved to approve offering the Wilson's to trade the lots purchased at the Colo Business Park. Council member Handsaker seconded the motion and it passed with ayes: Otto, Handsaker, and Spalding. Nays: Stoeffler.

The fire department parking lot was discussed. The council discussed replacing the sidewalk and grading the parking lot. More information is being gathered.

Discussions on the city owned property were had. The council discussed where to focus the money?

There being no further business to come before the meeting the Council member Spalding moved to adjourn. Council member Stoeffler seconded the motion. The motion carried and the meeting adjourned.

John C. Wilson
Mayor

Attest: Amy S. Kohlwes
City Clerk