

Proceedings of the Colo City Council
September 18, 2017

The Colo City Council met in special session on Monday, September 18, 2017 at City Hall. Mayor John Wilson called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. The roll was called showing members present and absent as follows: Present: Nichols, Geisinger, Conrad, Spalding. Absent: Otto

The council met to discuss the future housing development in the Carmody Addition. All members agreed the preliminary plat needs to be finished in order to figure out what the city can do financially. The council would like the development to have curb and gutter along with concrete streets. Sidewalks were discussed and the council would like the home owners to install the sidewalk within a certain timeframe. Further information is being gathered on the project. The council is looking at different financing options.

In other business the council discussed city signage. Council member Spalding presented the council with options. All agreed the Collins' will do the metal work and someone else will do the brick work. More information is being gathered.

There being no further business to come before the meeting Council member Spalding moved to adjourn. Council member Nichols seconded the motion. The motion carried and the meeting adjourned.
