

Quiz Photomicrographs

1. This is what part of the placenta? _____
It signifies what? _____
How does it signify the above? _____
2. This is what part of the placenta? _____
What is the abnormality? _____
How would it appear grossly? _____
What is its significance? _____
3. What parts of the placenta are shown? a. _____
b. _____
What do they show? a. _____
b. _____
How would they appear grossly? a. _____
b. _____
4. What is the structure shown? _____
What condition does it exhibit? _____
What is the name of the cell at the marker? _____
5. What condition do these cells suggest? _____
What would you expect to see grossly? _____
6. What are these cells? _____
Where would you expect to see such tissue on the placenta grossly? _____

7. What are the structures shown? _____
What is the abnormality at marker 1? _____
What is the abnormality at marker 2? _____
What gross abnormality would you expect to see alerting you to the presence of these abnormalities? _____
8. Which area of the placenta is shown here? _____
Identify the layers as marked: Marker 1: _____
Marker 2: _____
Marker 3: _____
9. What is the structure shown here? _____
How do you know? _____
10. What is the lesion shown here? _____
Where and how would it appear grossly? _____
11. What is the lesion shown here? _____
Where and how would it appear grossly? _____
12. The placenta shown here is from what trimester? _____
List three criteria which support your conclusion: a. _____
b. _____
c. _____